GENERAL INFORMATION
Located at 9906 Maine Avenue in Lakeside, California, this is the original historic site of the Lakeside Community Church. Built in 1896, it is now a non-sectarian country chapel and community meeting place. Owned and restored by the Lakeside Historical Society, this facility is dedicated to history preservation and the citizens of Lakeside.

The chapel and grounds are open to the public. With its turn of the century atmosphere of wisteria and roses, white wood siding, bell tower, wooden pews and stained-glass windows, the chapel and garden lends itself to small old fashioned or country weddings. It requires little or no additional decorations for any occasion. The chapel will seat 90 guests. The social hall has table seating for 65 people.

EVENT ASSISTANT
An assistant will be assigned to assist with your event, helping with various small needs during your event (locating electric outlets or extension cords), monitoring the facilities, and encouraging guests as to the guidelines listed below.
